Abstract (13pt, bold)
Abstract should be typed in italic, font size 10pt, single-spacing format and justified. The abstract should briefly summarize the aim, findings, or purposes of the article. Authors encouraged to write clear explanation on methodology or conceptual framework used in the article, followed by short summary of the research findings. The end part of the abstract should give conclusion that indicates how this paper contributes to fill the gap in previous studies, or any practical implication that might occurs. The abstract should be written in one concise paragraph of no more than 250 words.

Keywords: contains; three to five; relevant keywords; separated by semicolon; written in lower case, italic 10pt

Guidelines (13pt, Bold, Title Case)
The manuscript should be written in English on A4-sized papers (21x29.7 cm), with custom margins as follows: left 2.5 cm, right 2 cm, bottom 2 cm, and top 2 cm. The manuscript should use Callisto MT, 12pt font size, 1.5 line spacing. Manuscript should consist of 4,000—7,000 words (research article) and 3,000—4,000 words (book review). Referencing and citing technique used is APA 6th edition, with in-text citation format

Guidelines - Introduction
All sources quoted or paraphrased should be listed in the reference list. Cite source using APA in-text citation format, by writing author’s last name followed by the publication year, for example: (Hudson, 2014). Direct quotations, tables, or figures referred should include the page number, for example: (Hudson, 2010, p. 44).

The introduction part should explore these elements: (1) Explanation about the research background and the general theme or topic; (2) Provide clear and convincing answer to the question: Why is this article is important? (3) A concise literature review of available literature or research. Please cite the most imperative part, theories, or debates from existing studies; (4) Indicate how your article will contribute to fill the gap to the current studies. This is also important to show that your idea is original; (5) Offer explanation on specific problem or question^{1} and hypothesis that will be the main point(s) of the article.\textsuperscript{2} We encourage authors to bring only one or two questions. Author should also describe objectives of the research and offer the brief structure of the article.

Guidelines - Methodology

Author is encouraged to describe methodology clearly. Put it in a dedicated subchapter if necessary. This part should contain a brief justification for the research methods used. This part should contain enough detail to enable the reader to evaluate the appropriateness of your methods and the reliability and validity of your findings.

How To Write Your Subchapters

[This is an example text]

If You Have 2\textsuperscript{nd} Level Subchapters, Use 12pt, Underline, Title Case

[This is an example text]

If You Have 3rd Level Subchapters, Use 12pt, Italic, Title Case. Run the text on after a punctuation mark. [This is an example text]

\textsuperscript{1} Fewer question or hypothesis is better, we encourage author to bring only 1-2 questions

\textsuperscript{2} Footnote may be used to provide additional description (terms, concept, specific event, etc.) that might be too excessive to be included in-text.

Curabitur convallis nulla leo, sit amet auctor est vestibulum nec. Aenean ut neque vel quam egestas accumsan eu in elit. Nullam lobortis faucibus lectus posuere consequat.

- Duis convallis nulla ligula, ac congue ipsum cursus sed.
- Sed ut dolor eleifend, malesuada sem vitae, mollis risus.
- Sed sit amet massa felis. [This is an example text for 2nd level subchapter]

Guidelines - Conclusion
Conclusion is a brief summary of findings and discussion. It is strongly recommended to avoid mere repetitive statements or phrase from the previous section. Author may also discuss implication of the findings and point out prospect for further research.

Conclusion should followed by reference list format. Reference list is based on American Psychological Association (APA) style. Reference list should appear at the end of the article and include only literatures actually cited in the manuscript. Citation should be sorted alphabetically and chronologically, written in single spacing and 0pt before-after spacing format.
