EDITORIAL

This edition's Illocutionary Speech in the song "Miracles in December" by EXO was delivered by Jose Leandro, Keren Prasetyanti, Amanda Pniel, and Jayanti Megasari. The second piece is by Sri Wahyuningsih and is titled New Terminology Affected by COVID-19 in Indonesian and Korean: A Study of the Neologism of the Corpus Linguistic Approach. Iva Hanani conducted a comparison of Korean and Indonesian honorifics in the third article. The fourth piece, written by Nita Rustanti, is titled Two Online Media Utilization in Learning Basic Japanese During the Covid-19 Pandemic. Perspectives on Intercultural Contact and Japanese Learning by Indonesian Trainees in Japan was the topic of the fifth paper by Lisda Nurjaleka. Last but not least, Ahmad Sugianto reviewed Wawan Gunawan's book Systemic Functional Linguistics (SFL) and Teacher Education in EFL Context in this edition.

I would want to extend my sincere gratitude to the editorial board members, reviewers, and authors for their dedication and hard work on behalf of this journal as Editor-in-Chief. We anticipate that this publication will significantly advance the field of applied linguistics research in Indonesia.
