EDITORIAL FOREWORD

We are very grateful that the Jurnal Nasional Teknik Elektro dan Teknologi Informasi Volume 11 Number 4 November 2022 has been published. The Editorial Board would like to thank all parties for their contribution in this publication.

Jurnal Nasional Teknik Elektro dan Teknologi Informasi Volume 11 Number 4 November 2022 contains ten papers, consisting of four papers in the field of information technology; four papers in the signal, systems, and electronics/telecommunications field; and two papers in the field of electrical power systems.

Regarding the soon-to-expire accreditation period, this edition will be submitted for the application of a new accreditation status. We would like to request assistance from all parties so that the reaccreditation process proceeds smoothly and we can achieve the best possible results.

It is necessary to restate that Jurnal Nasional Teknik Elektro dan Teknologi Informasi leads to becoming an international journal with bilingual publications. We invite both international and Indonesian academics and researchers to submit papers here. Authors only need to submit papers in one language. Our competent staff will translate your papers from Indonesian to English, or vice versa, before publishing them in printed editions and on the Jurnal Nasional Teknik Elektro dan Teknologi Informasi's website.

We remain open to criticism and suggestions.

Editor in Chief
