Jurnal Nasional Teknik Elektro dan Teknologi Informasi is a research-based open-access journal. It is published quarterly in February, May, August, and November.

FOREWORD

We are very grateful that the Jurnal Nasional Teknik Elektro dan Teknologi Informasi Volume 12 Number 1 February 2023 has been published. This edition contains ten papers: two papers in the field of information technology, six in the field of signal, systems, and electronics/telecommunications, and two in the field of power systems. The Editorial Boards would like to thank all parties for contributing to this publication.

We would like to inform the readers that the Jurnal Nasional Teknik Elektro dan Teknologi Informasi has adopted a new template beginning with this issue. Using the new template is expected to make transitions between the chapters more prominent and interesting, making the journal more comfortable to read.

It is necessary to restate that the Jurnal Nasional Teknik Elektro dan Teknologi Informasi is on the path to becoming an international journal with a bilingual publication. Preparations are underway for the international indexation.

We invite academics and researchers to submit papers here. Please only submit the paper in a single language version. Before being published in the printed edition or on the website, the papers accepted for publication will first be translated into Indonesian or English.

We remain open to criticisms and suggestions.

Editor in Chief
